SUMMARY

Growth product manager who runs experimentation programs end to end, from PRD to activation lift, not a biography of past titles. At Sensata I built cohort-level KPI dashboards across 50K+ connected devices, isolating the drop-off signals that lifted feature adoption 18%. At Plug Power I ran 15+ A/B tests across paid channels, cutting CPA 25% and lifting conversion 20% through customer research into buyer motivation. At Pixis I read user behavior in Amplitude across 30+ campaigns and rebuilt a fashion brand's funnel end to end for 3x ROAS in a month. On my own product, SwipeHire, I owned the PRD and the activation funnel, running 8+ experiments that lifted activation 25%. Now Strategic Marketing III at Applied Materials, running AI agents built on Claude to automate repetitive analysis.
