SUMMARY

Analytical growth product builder who turns usage data into activation, onboarding and roadmap decisions. Built the KPI framework that tracked 50K+ connected devices by usage signal, identified the accounts that activated versus stalled, and shortened time-to-value while lifting feature adoption 18%; ran 30+ customer interviews that turned direct customer feedback and onboarding friction into product improvements (CSAT +22%); and shipped the roadmap behind it 20% faster to market. Customer-obsessed and experiment-driven: runs rapid go-to-market experiments on positioning, packaging and messaging that turned a sensing-product launch into $2M+ in first-year revenue, and automates the recurring parts of that analysis with AI agents built on Claude as Strategic Marketing III at Applied Materials.
