SUMMARY

Product marketer who owns a launch end to end, from the positioning decision to the demo narrative reps use on calls. Drove the $2M+ first-year GTM for Sensata's new sensing products, then built the enablement system (battlecards, objection handling, case studies) that moved win rate 30% across 50+ reps who had never sold the category. Ran the competitive and win/loss work behind a 10+ player benchmarking study that fed a 12% YoY price realignment. Automates recurring competitive and market research with AI agents built on Claude as Strategic Marketing III at Applied Materials, the same instinct a fast-growing GTM team needs for self-serve tooling.
