Hiring Team, Artisan,

Artisan is selling AI Employees - starting with an AI BDR - to revenue teams. I have sold AI agents to the same buyer profile for the last 4 years at Pixis. The Growth role is a near-direct continuation of work I have already done.

Why Pixis is the closest analog to your buyer:

- At Pixis, I deployed an AI marketing platform (cross-channel bid optimization, generative creative, audience modeling) to 8 enterprise clients with per-client monthly budgets of $15K-$90K ($1.4M annualized portfolio). I was the human-in-the-loop on the AI engine - the same role Artisan customers play with your AI BDRs.
- Trained 8 marketing and revenue-ops teams on reinforcement-learning bid optimization, generative creative testing, and pLTV-weighted budget pacing. Validated 3x ROAS lift for a fashion D2C partner via holdout incrementality testing. Cut client churn 50%.

Multi-channel growth chops:

- Plug Power MarTech rebuild: -25% CPA, +20% conversion across Google + Meta + LinkedIn + programmatic + email. Coordinated 3 industry conferences and 6+ webinars.
- SwipeHire: Founded on Python + OpenAI API + React (app.swipehire.io). 50+ users, +25% activation, zero paid budget. So I think in your stack.

I am Boston-based, SF or NYC works (open to relo). The 3+ yrs band fits cleanly at 4+ YoE.

Looking forward to talking.
