Why "growth outpaced systems" is my exact playbook

From the Hyperbound JD: "Growth has outpaced our systems, and we need someone who takes genuine pride in a clean CRM and workflows that hum quietly in the background."

HUBSPOT STACK NATIVE

Full Rebuild

Plug Power: rebuilt lifecycle stages, dedup, source tracking, deal triggers, automations from scratch. UTM spec from zero.

ATTRIBUTION ARCHITECT

Ad Click → SQL

Salesforce + Adobe Analytics + GA4 + GTM. Cross-validated lead routing into Salesforce campaign attribution.

SCALE-UP PACE

Weekly QBRs

Pixis: ran 8-client B2B SaaS portfolio. Trained client teams under weekly QBR pressure. Cut churn 50%.

HYPERBOUND MARKETING OPS JD NEED

DIRECT EVIDENCE

Own HubSpot end-to-end (hygiene, dedup, lifecycle stages, deal triggers)

Plug Power: rebuilt from scratch. Lifecycle stages, dedup, source tracking, deal trigger workflows, internal notifications and task creation.

Pipeline hygiene (stale deals, missing properties, closed-lost cleanup)

Plug Power: audited and rebuilt the full pipeline. Pixis: managed 8 client pipelines under weekly QBR pressure.

Maintain GTM stack (Clay, Amplemarket, Warmly, Zapier integrations)

Working knowledge of GTM stack tools. Plug Power: coordinated 4-vendor MarTech RFP and rollout with 6 stakeholders. SwipeHire: integrated GA4 + GTM + Amplitude + OpenAI API solo.

Build reporting that drives decisions

Sensata: $627M margin-recovery executive dashboard on Power BI tracking 1,200 opportunities. Plug Power: HubSpot dashboards + closed-loop attribution.

3+ years HubSpot + B2B SaaS at startup/scale-up

Plug Power HubSpot rebuild + Pixis 8-client B2B SaaS portfolio + SwipeHire founded solo. MS Marketing Analytics from Simon.

The Plug Power rebuild playbook (closest analog to Hyperbound)

Hyperbound went from 15 to 30 teammates fast. Plug Power had a similar trajectory and the same broken-systems story. Here is what I rebuilt.

What I rebuilt at Plug Power

- HubSpot from scratch: lifecycle stages, contact + company dedup, deal stages, automation triggers, source tracking, owner routing
- UTM spec from zero: wrote the doc, rolled out to paid + email + organic teams, set up GTM containers to enforce it
- Closed-loop attribution: ad click → HubSpot → Salesforce Campaign → SQL pipeline reporting. Cross-validated against Adobe Analytics
- Adobe Audience Manager: account-level audience segments, retargeting funnels, suppression lists
- 4-vendor MarTech RFP and rollout: aligned 6 internal stakeholders, documented SLAs, escalation paths

"The Plug Power rebuild was the Hyperbound moment from a year ago. I would compress that work to weeks here, not months."

How I would ramp at Hyperbound

- Week 1-2: HubSpot portal audit. Document current state of lifecycle stages, deal stages, dedup, source tracking, integration syncs. Identify top 5 fires.
- Week 3-4: Ship hygiene quick-wins (dedup, stale deal cleanup, lifecycle stage cleanup). Validate Amplemarket, Clay, Warmly, Zapier integrations end-to-end.
- Month 2: Rebuild reporting (dashboards by ICP, by ABM segment, by campaign). Document deal trigger workflows. Surface 2 specific data quality fixes for sales.
- Month 3: Standing weekly rhythm. Hand off 1 documented runbook (HubSpot hygiene + integration troubleshooting) so next ops hire can ramp fast.

My 30 / 60 / 90 at Hyperbound

SF or Remote-US, $130-180K, Will Sponsor. Calibrated to weekly cadence and 15-to-30-person growth pace.

30

Days 1-30: HubSpot portal audit. Document current state. Identify top 5 fires. Sit with sales + marketing + customer success to map handoff frictions. Ship 3 hygiene quick-wins.

60

Days 31-60: Rebuild lifecycle stage + dedup + source tracking on a clean baseline. Validate all GTM stack integrations end-to-end. Build first-version dashboards by ICP.

90

Days 61-90: Standing weekly cadence with sales + marketing. Documented runbooks for HubSpot hygiene + integration troubleshooting. Reporting drives weekly decisions, not just historical reads.

Why AI builder matters in Ops

Founded SwipeHire on Python + OpenAI API + React (app.swipehire.io). I can wire AI agents into your HubSpot workflows for enrichment, deduplication, and routing.
