SUMMARY

Paid-media manager who already builds workflows on Claude and the OpenAI API, not just signs off on them. Hired and ran an 8-person team at Pixis carrying P&L for 8 client accounts at $15K-$90K/month each, then owned $100K/month budgets across Google, Microsoft, Meta and LinkedIn at Plug Power (CPA -25%, cost per lead -50%). Built the KPI frameworks, sales enablement and leadership recaps that kept Sales, Engineering and distributor partners aligned on one plan at Sensata. Automates forecasting and reporting now at Applied Materials with Claude AI agents, and brings that same test-measure-recap discipline to a paid co-marketing portfolio.
