SUMMARY

Demand-gen marketer who owns the funnel end to end, from paid spend to pipeline handoff, and quotes CPL and conversion cold. Built Sensata's new-GTM demand funnel with no existing playbook to lean on, turning email and paid launch campaigns into +35% qualified leads, and ran Plug Power's $100K/month Google, Microsoft, Meta and LinkedIn budgets to -25% CPA while automating its Pardot lead-scoring flow to cut cost per lead 50%. Pairs that hands-on marketing-automation ownership with distributor and channel-partner GTM from Sensata's industrial accounts, and automates demand-gen reporting with Claude AI agents. Ready to drive that demand engine for construction-industry distributors and rep agencies, tracking pipeline and outreach through the same supply-chain channel Sensata trained for.
