SUMMARY

Growth marketer with an entrepreneurial, test-first approach to channel bets, from idea to scaled program. Redesigned channel-partner incentive structures at Sensata, raising distributor margins from 53% to 61% while still driving +12% YoY revenue, and ran retail media (Amazon Ads, Criteo) plus iOS app UA (Appsflyer, Adjust) as new-channel tests across an 8-client portfolio at Pixis, cutting churn 50%. Built the Salesforce/Adobe Analytics/GTM attribution infrastructure behind $100K/month paid budgets at Plug Power under imperfect visibility (CPA -25%). Automates repetitive analysis with Claude AI agents at Applied Materials, and brings that test-verify-scale discipline to an integrated portfolio of new channels like Influencer & Affiliate and SMS, aimed at new customer and MAU growth.
