SUMMARY

Product manager who runs AI agents built on Claude to automate recurring work, not just talk about agentic AI. At Sensata I owned the sensor product roadmap and a 100+ feature backlog (releases 25% faster, time-to-market cut 20%), ran 30+ discovery interviews with OEMs and distributors that lifted CSAT 22%, and built sales enablement and training content for 50+ reps. I ground every roadmap call in SQL/GA4 cohort data, then write the messaging that makes a launch, a policy change, or a new tool actually land with the people using it. Now Strategic Marketing III at Applied Materials, carrying P&L targets and running the cross-functional stakeholder cadence (OKRs, leadership reviews) that ships work across Sales, Engineering and Accounts.
